[Redacted]

25X1

1. [Redacted] three ammunition bunkers were being constructed in Berlin-Biesdorf. The workers of an East Berlin construction firm in charge of the project demanded wage increases and, after being turned down by the building management applied to the government.

25X1

2. On 29 January 1954, the KVP billets in Biesdorf seemed vacated. The barracks yard was empty. No sentries were at the gates. [Redacted] KVP units had left for an unknown destination five or six days earlier.

25X1

Comment. [Redacted] other KVP units also moved to the East Berlin outskirts from the central sector of the city. The movement allegedly was a temporary measure during the period of the Big Four conference. The Biesdorf guard regiment had possibly moved to Strausberg.
